

Please do not preempt Indiana's no-call law. It has almost eliminated telemarketing phone calls to my home- for items or services I would never buy over the phone anyway. This is the best legislation that Indiana has passed in the last 10 years that affects everyone with a phone. Please don't do anything that would water down this legislation.

Sincerely, Lori A. Jaworski